

NEWSPAPER

CONGRATULATIONS!

PETER MWADORI LEADS THE WAY

In a monumental milestone for Upendo Children's Village, Peter Mwadori Luganje stands as the beacon of inspiration today as he becomes the first graduate from the organization. Amidst a joyous ceremony held at Kenya Coast National Polytechnic, Mwadori is set to receive his Certificate in Craft in ICT, marking a significant achievement not only for himself but for the entire community at Upendo.

Since joining Upendo Children's Village, Mwadori has exemplified dedication and perseverance, overcoming challenges and demonstrating remarkable academic prowess. His graduation symbolizes the fulfillment of dreams and the embodiment of hope for countless other children within the organization.

Speaking ahead of the ceremony, Mwadori expressed his gratitude to Upendo Children's Village for providing him with unwavering support and guidance throughout his educational journey. He emphasized the importance of education in transforming lives and urged his peers to pursue their dreams relentlessly. As Mwadori prepares to embark on a new chapter in his life, the entire Upendo community stands united in celebration, inspired by his remarkable achievement and empowered by the belief that every child has the potential to succeed against all odds.

Peter Mwadori Luganje

Mwadori's journey is a testament to the transformative power of education and the unwavering support provided by Upendo Children's Village. Throughout his time at the Kenya Coast National Polytechnic, Mwadori pursued a course in Craft in ICT, demonstrating dedication and perseverance in his studies.

Addressing the audience,
Manager Michelle Nabwire expressed immense pride in Mwadori's accomplishment, highlighting his determination and resilience as an inspiration to all. She emphasized Upendo's commitment to nurturing the potential of every child under its care, ensuring they have the opportunity to thrive and succeed.